Introduction

Catholic schools are called to teach, through their curriculum and through their interactions with people in the school community, a personal commitment to justice as an authentic expression of Catholic faith.

Procedure

2. The implementation of the Catholic Education Council Policy Statement Justice Education in Catholic Schools is the responsibility of the Principal.
3. Personnel from the Brisbane Catholic Education Centre support schools in the implementation of the Catholic Education Council Policy on Justice Education.

© 1997 Catholic Education Archdiocese of Brisbane