Come on another talent hunt – this time to find the talents of the people in your family - creative, work, sporting, caring, communicating, technical, community, academic etc. Write down the talents you see in your family, then ask them to fill in the talents they see in each family member.