RETREATS AND CAMPS FOR STUDENTS

The following guidelines are taken into account in planning and carrying through retreats, and religion camps.

1. There is to be a designated Director who is qualified for the task.
2. The Director is responsible for all aspects of the retreat/camp.
3. The Director is present at all sessions.
4. Presenters of religious material at sessions of the camp/retreat must have faculties to preach or authorisation as a religious education teacher.
5. Others involved in the conduct of a retreat/camp are to be qualified to properly carry out the tasks assigned to them.
6. Parents are to receive in advance an outline of the retreat/camp program together with other relevant information such as names and qualifications of presenters.
7. Requirements associated with the duty of care are to be adhered to.
