A fantastic, well-planned, relevant day. Bravo!
Great day. Very enjoyable and worthwhile – the sacrifice of a Saturday was worth it.
Please do it again – this is a very valuable conference with a definite place in the world of inservicing/PD.
Loved that it was interactive and hands-on.
Imagine if all involved in school and parish liturgy were in-serviced in these strands of liturgy development. What a positive change!

Register today for this important event!

PRESENTER BIOS:

Helen Bachmann studied Visual Arts at USQ, Toowoomba, majoring in painting. Following the birth of her third child she felt a call to teaching and her strong Catholic faith led her to the Catholic sector. Helen enjoyed her role as a classroom teacher, however, she now feels ‘at home’ in her role as Visual Arts specialist teacher, teaching prep to year 7. She has a deep love for Visual Arts and a genuine interest in supporting the religious life of the school through Visual Arts. At the recent BCE Arts Conference, Helen presented workshops on silk painting. Helen uses her creativity at All Saints by ministering in the area of art and environment. She has also contributed to our conference artwork this year.

Anne Frawley-Mangan is an experienced educator, presenter and writer. She specialises in using The Arts (particularly drama) to enhance religious education and liturgy. Recently, Anne has presented workshops and keynotes in North America, New Zealand and Australia. She has been passionately involved at All Saints for over 25 years which she feels very blessed to call her spiritual home. Anne believes that you can never have too much drama in your life!

Anita Hendrie is a member of the Christian Brothers Regional Mission Team and the Project Hatch retreat team. She has also been a member of the youth ministry team of the Archdiocese of Brisbane, teacher and Campus Minister, and has been involved in a number of outreach programs. Anita is passionate about social justice, the Arts and working with young people to empower them to become leaders in the community, to live out the Gospel and to truly make a difference.

Michael Mangan is a composer, teacher & music liturgist whose 250 songs are used in liturgy and religious education in schools & parishes throughout Australia, NZ & North America. Michael tours extensively presenting workshops at national & international conferences & events and over the last 15 years has performed his acclaimed interactive concerts to almost 500,000 students in over 2000 primary schools. Michael is a member of the Australian Academy of Liturgy and is National Deputy Chair of the Australian Pastoral Musicians Network. He is passionate about using engaging music in vibrant, meaningful and inclusive liturgy.

Ryan Andrews is currently studying a Bachelor of Education (Secondary) at Griffith University. He holds a Certificate IV in Theology (Leadership and Ministry) and a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment. Ryan is the Youth Ministry Coordinator at All Saints Parish as well as a retreat facilitator with Project Hatch. Ryan is inspired by youth ministry and the opportunity it creates within the community. He desires to continue the good work that is being done with young people and the formation of their faith within Australia.

Zach Woodward has been involved in both youth and music ministry at All Saints Parish for many years. He also has 4 years experience running retreats in upper primary years and high schools with the Passionist Youth Retreat Team. During this time he has facilitated retreats in schools all throughout Queensland and New South Wales. Zach is a drummer with Emmanuel Worship and leads worship with them throughout Australia, New Zealand and Asia. He is currently a member of the Campus Ministry at Marist College Ashgrove.
